AN UPRUSH OF PRICES

Business of Forenoon Session Was Unusually Active.

THE DEMAND WAS URGENT

Market Afterwards Showed Some Sign of Uneasiness, and Buying Movement Became Exhausted, Making Closing Irregular.

(By Associated Press.)

REW YORK, August 13.—The recuperative forces in the stock market gathered resources to-day with the result of a buoyant uprush in prices on a very animated huying movement. The rate of activity during the foremon session of the market promised the largest day's business for the current year. The market for the current year. The market for the current year. The market afterwards showed the movement. The recovery was the result of a series of incidents ratio a treatment of the movement. The recovery was the result of a series of incidents ratio a reaction from the recently prevailing extreme depression was an important factor. The mere sentiments of the recovery after the glow and apprehension that have prevailed with the glow of the recovery after the glow of the recovery after the glow of the prevailing to market securities have met with all lively and urgent demand for stocks and honds of all grades to-day. The urgency of some of the buying and the violent advances in prices showed clearly enough that efforts by distressed shorts to cover their contracts before the rebound carried prices beyond their rach were an important element in the market. Bidding up of prices by opposing professionals to force higher prices out of the bears was another palpaile influence. But it was evident beyond this that there was a large and substantial buying element in the market, which was taking over stocks of all classes with freedom and confidence.

The event proves the contention of those who have maintained that there was a large waiting demand for stocks which was faking over stocks of all classes with freedom and confidence.

The taking over of the Seaboard Air Line in the Rock Island interest had a stimulating effect upon the speculative magination. It furnished proof that not all the large interests were hard pressed to hold their undigested securities and that the financial necessities in some unariers might prove the opportunity in others for extending influence and considered and prices defin NEW YORK, August 13.-The recupera

NEW YORK, Aug. 13.—The opening of the market was active and strong with a brisk resumption of the previous day's advance. The improvement in London was encouraging, especially as foreign houses were buying stock, and the supply of orders through the commission houses was highly satisfactory. Traders were operating for a further advance. A large block of Reading common was delivered to houses closely associated with the Pennsylvania interest on Wednesday. The change in the street sentiment was shown in nothing so much as the reception of the further extension of the Rock Island scheme. It is only a week or two since additional ventures by that interest would have been regarded with grave slarm, and the change in public sentiment is, therefore, the more remarkable. The scattering buying of Rock Island common and preferred was quite a feature.

CHECKED SOMEWHAT ABOUT NOON: OHEURED SOMEWHAT ABOUT NOON:
After noon, 12 o'clock, the market checked somewhat and there were indications in places that the short interest had been largely shaken in by the rapid advance. It is admitted that recent investment buying had been good, but traders were taking profits and seemed to waiting to see whether the market would rally further, on its merits.

NAKED AND ADRIFT OVER FIVE DAYS

Morgan Line Steamer Rescues Lad of Twelve Years from a Small Boat.

(By Associated Press.) NEW YORK, August 13.—The Morgan Line steamer El Dorado, which arrived here to-day from Galveston, had on board a twelve-year-old boy, who was found adrift in an open boat about one found adrift in an open boat about one hundred miles off the coast of Georgia on August 10th. He was naked and almost dead from exposure.

After the lad had been revived somewhat he told Captain Prescott that with two other boys he was fishing outside the harbor of Havanna, when the boat broke adrift, and they were unable to row it ashore. Two of the lads, seeing the land rapidly receding, plunged into the water and swam for shore. The other boy was unable to swim so far, and remained in the boat without food or water until picked up by the El Dorado. He says he was adrift for five days. Captain Prescott thinks the boat could not have drifted 530 miles from Havana to the point where it was sighted in less than six days and possibly longer.

COAST LINE ADVANCES

Seaboard Deal Had Good Effect Upon Two Other Southern Roads.

The Seaboard deal has had a good effect upon Atlantic Coast Line and Louisville and Nashville stocks. The Seaboard as an independent road, was regarded as something of a menace to its competitors in the South, as there was always more or less danger of a zate war. But with the Seaboard in "friendly hands." the danger is removed zhd it is but natural that Coast Line and Louisville and Nashville, which is owned by it, should profit by the new arrangement.

Three days ago Coast Line was quoted at 108 and Louisville sold at 165% and Coast Line at 119, There was a demand for several bundred shares of Coast Line late in the session, but none was offered. The stock is closely held and it is predicted by those in position to know that the time is not distant when it will be selling for $200 a share.

Last year the Coist Line system, including its receipts from Louisville and other constituent roads, earned between 16 and 17 per cent. net on the capital stock. That sounds like a labored effort to boost Coast Line stock. But the statement as to earnings is correct and as for the rest. The Times-Dispatch does not The Seaboard deal has had a good ef-to poost Coast Line stock. But the statement as to earnings is correct and as for the rest, The Times-Dispatch does not use its news columns to boom stocks. The information is for the benefit of many people in Virginia who are interested directly or indirectly in these railroads.

Rural Letter Carriers.

The following rural letter-carriers have been appointed in Virginia, to begin service September 15.: At Duffield, Va., John D. Johnson, carrier, and J. P. Burke, substitute, on route 1; Henrietta S. Rend, at Harborton, Accomae county; Josiah C. Mills, at Hylas, Hanover county, and Ella F. Butterworth, at Wilson's, Dinwiddle county, have been appointed postmusters for those places, respectively. The following new postoffices have been established: Burruss, Caroline county, and Edwin E. Corprew commissioned postmaster, and at Ruby, Stafford county, Mildred N. Rose postmuster.

Will Miss Col. Cabell.

When the Legislature re-assembles in November, one familiar face will be missing on the House side. It will be that of Col Geo. C. Cabell, Jr., of Danville, who has resigned, and who contemplates removing his residence to Norfolk city to practice law.

Col. Cabell will be succeeded for both the long and short term by Maj. J. W. Bruce, who, it is said, will make a good representative.

JUDGE A.E. PHLEGAR THE TYLER LEADER

One of the most interesting stories which is now going the rounds of the politicians, is that in relation to the probable candidacy of former Governor J. Hoge Tyler, of Pulaski, for the United States Senate in 1905, and in the light of recent events on this line theer are few who doubt that the popular Southwest statesman intends to enter the race formally at the proper time.

mally at the proper time.

It is pretty generally believed, indeed, that the candidacy of former Supreme Court Judge A. A. Phiegar, of Montgomery, for State Senator in the Fourth District, is the sounding of the keynote of Major Tyler's fight, and that in the event of his election he will be looked upon as the Tyler leader in the Democratic caucus, should the contest be decided this way instead of by primary...ajor Tyler and Judge Phiegar are the closest sort of personal and political friends, and there is no favor which one would hesitate for a moment to do for the nomination by Mr. R. C. Stearnes, superintendent of schools of Roanoke county. Senator Edward Lyle, the present incumbent, is not a candidate for relection. are the closest sort of personal and political friends, and there is no favor which one would hesitate for a moment to do for the other. Judge Phiegar is being opposed for the nomination by Mr. R. C. Stearnes, superintendent of schools of Reanoke county. Senator Edward Lyle, the present incumbent, is not a candidate for reelection.

Judge Phiegar is not without legislative experience, having once before served in the Senate with distinguished ability.
